The Bohemian
2015 Wairarapa Pinot Noir

Lush • Berries • Spice • Lingering

The 2015 Wairarapa Pinot Noir is Bohemian's flagship wine. Lush and tasty, it was crafted by some of New Zealand's top Pinot Noir producers, and truly is a remarkable creation. This wine has been the guiding spirit behind the creation of Bohemian Wines. It truly is the ultimate embodiment of 'the Bohemian'.

14.3%	8.3	750
Alcohol by vol.	Std. drinks apx.	ml

Looks like 2015 'The Bohemian' Wairarapa Pinot Noir is an enticing, deep ruby red.

Smells like Lush, dark summer berry aromas come dancing from the glass, bringing with them notes of plums, exotic spices and liquorice.

Tastes like A smooth and lush entrance of dark plum and forest berries on the palate greets you before introducing an array of spicy notes, including star anise, cloves and an intriguing pepper tone that leads to the savoury, mineral core and a delightfully balanced finish that lingers.

Oakiness Low • ● • • • High

Sweetness Dry ● • • • • Sweet

Variety 100% Pinot Noir

Crop Yield 4 Tonnes / Hectare

Harvest 01 April - 21 April 2015

Vintage A windy spring and a wet spell over the New Year, was followed by a hot, dry summer.

Schubert

Produced in collaboration with Schubert Wines

www.winebohemian.com

Bohemian
A Dhall & Nash Brand