THE DANCER 2018 HAWKES BAY ROSÉ

DRY • SAVOURY • TEXTURAL • SALINE

For millennia, the art of dance has weaved itself into the very core of people the world over. It tells stories, expresses emotion, and speaks in ways that transcend language. It appeals to an instinctual part of us. Simply put, it makes us happy, and in this way, it is the perfect embodiment of our Bohemian Rosé. The enjoyment this wine brings and the elegance it does so with is akin to the fluidity and grace of the most profoundly passionate dancer.

LOOKS LIKE

2018 'The Dancer' Hawkes Bay Rosé is light pink with a slight orange hue.

SMELLS LIKE

Youthful and vibrant. A well-rehearsed choreography of notes showcasing apricots, red apple skin, musk, and sandalwood. Breathtakingly attractive. With air the bouquet shows high toned floral and perfume notes.

TASTES LIKE

Soft entry to the stage, with cool, fresh acidity. Red berry and floral characters dance across the palate. Well framed with a mineral, chalk texture and underscored with hints of preserved citrus. Elegant, nuanced, poised, and graceful.
